DEL AIRE NEIGHBORHOOD
WATCH ASSOCIATION

SEPTEMBER 2014

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends & Neighbors,

Well the kids are back in school, professional football has started with college football to follow soon, and they say cooler weather is not far off. Where did the summer go?

As you may have noticed from the crime stats, we had a rash of break-ins last month. The good news is that the responsible person has been caught and charged. Good job DCPD! Unfortunately there are still individuals out there who live a life of crime, so we still have to be on the alert. Any suspicious activity needs to be called in to the police.

Prior to our August meeting, DANWA paid tribute to our volunteers with an appreciation dinner. Great food and good conversation was aplenty. Again THANK YOU to all the patrollers, block captains and others, without you DANWA would just be name.

A special thank you to Representative Scott Inman for joining us at the August meeting and enlightening us on some of the goings-on at the Oklahoma state capital.

Please join us September 8th, at 7 pm for our next meeting. Del City Police Officer Brad Cowden be our guest speaker. We need your input on some up coming projects. See you then.

This is one volunteer project you won't be sorry you took, please come help.

August 2014 General Membership meeting highlights

Minutes were approved
Treasurer report was approved
Crime Stats were presented
Vote was approved to assist in purchasing a limited amount of school supplies for Townsend and a committee was appointed to the task
Vote to purchase glow sticks for Halloween
Joe Satterwhite won the door prize

Meeting adjourned at 8:10 pm

A friend received a telephone call last evening from an individual identifying himself as an AT&T Service Technician (could also be any telephone service) who was conducting a test on the telephone lines. He stated that to complete the test I should touch nine (9), zero (0), the pound sign (#), and then hang up. Luckily, I was suspicious and refused.

Upon contacting the telephone company, I was informed that by pushing 90#, you give the requesting individual full access to your telephone line, which enables them to place long distance calls billed to your home phone number. I was further informed that this scam has been originating from many local jails/prisons. DO NOT press 90# for ANYONE...

In Case of Evacuation

In a disaster situation it may be necessary to evacuate your home for several days or longer. Because disasters can strike with little or no warning, you should be prepared to leave at a moment's notice. Knowing beforehand the steps to take in case of evacuation can make a difference.

- Contact the local emergency management office to learn evacuation routes for your area.
- Determine where you will go if your community is evacuated.
- Discuss with your family the possibility of evacuation.
- Find out your child's school evacuation policy.
- Check that your disaster supply kit is assembled and ready to go.
- Make sure your car is filled up—fuel may be in short supply during a disaster.

WHEN AUTHORITIES TELL YOU TO EVACUATE

- Bring your disaster supply kit.
- Wear sturdy shoes and clothing.
- Unplug home electronics.
- Lock the doors and windows.
- Turn off the main switches and valves for gas water and electricity, if instructed.
- Inform a friend or relative of your route.
- Follow recommended evacuation routes. Watch for washed-out bridges, flooded areas and downed power lines.

PETS

- Pets should not be left behind during a disaster, but do not risk your own safety attempting to find them if you must evacuate quickly.
- Attach ID tags to your pet with your name and address.
- Remember that most emergency shelters do not allow pets (except service animals).
- Make a list of pet shelters and of hotels that permit animals in the area you would evacuate to.
- Put together an emergency supply kit for your pet. Include things like a first aid kit, food dishes, a litter box, a leash or pet carrier, medication, food, veterinary records and water.

If You're Going to a Public Shelter

- Be aware that alcoholic beverages, pets and weapons are not allowed in public shelters.
- Practice patience and cooperation. Sharing space with many others can be a challenge.
- Stay in the shelter until authorities advise you it is safe to leave.

Managing a Disaster at Home

Although you may not be asked to evacuate—and even if you are—disasters can isolate you from outside help and make it necessary for you to care for yourself for days at a time. Your disaster supply kit will contain many of the tools and supplies you need. Here are other ways to use and manage the resources you have at your home.

WATER

- Water is crucial for health and survival. If a disaster is imminent, fill pitchers, jars, buckets, water bottles and your bathtub in case your community water supply is cut off.
- If your drinking water supply is running low, use water from ice cube trays, the water heater and toilet tanks (but not bowls). It is not safe to use the water from radiators, waterbeds or swimming pools.
- Each person should drink at least two quarts of water each day. Drink what you need each day, and look for more water for the next day.

FOOD

- Ration food supplies for everyone except children and pregnant women. Most people can survive easily on half the normal amount.
- Avoid eating food from dented or swollen cans or food that looks or smells abnormal.
- Use pre-prepared formula for babies.
