DEL AIRE NEIGHBORHOOD

NOVEMBER 2017

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends & Neighbors,

As I look around and admire all of the fall flowers in their array of colors, it's apparent that autumn is well underway. The number, size, and variety of pumpkins is amazing, and we've already experienced a few mornings where that light jacket wasn't quite heavy enough. Soon we will be setting our clocks back an hour back from daylight savings time to regular time (November 5th). Then honoring our military veterans on November 11th.

For most of us enjoying all of the activities of the holidays, Thanksgiving being our starter, all of the family fellowship and bountiful feasting, defiantly a time for reflection on all of the blessings our Creator has bestowed upon us. The story of the first thanksgiving is well known by all and while Christianity (the Puritans) had its fingerprint on the occasion, followers of all the major religions can embrace the meaning of Thanksgiving. Whether Christian, Jew, Muslim, Buddhist, or non-believer, we are all brothers and sisters of the human race.

Unfortunately some of our brothers & sisters and neighbors have less to be thankful this year. Due to wind, water, or fire, their lives have been gravely affected. Recovery will be a long road but we can help. Like many of you, I have my favorite charities that I support; this year I have expanded the list to continue to do so. I hope that those of you, who can, will do the same. (Caution: if you are thinking of donating to a group that you are not totally familiar with, check them out—make sure the majority of the gift goes to those in need, and not someone sitting high and dry behind a desk.)

One other date to remember is November 14th, that's when we in Del City will vote on a sales tax issue. I don't have all of the details yet but I understand that the money generated will go to the Del City Fire and Police Departments for vehicles, equipment and pay raises. I'm sure we will be receiving more information in with our city utility bill.

Don't forget, we (DANWA) will have election of officers in December. Before that, I hope to see you at our November 13th meeting.

May God Bless you and yours.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Ron McCall, DANWA President, 677-7923 danwapres@cox.net

Come on People! Youngsters!!
We need YOUR HELP!!!

Need block captains for:

Ridgeway (Vickie to Del View, to creek)
Elmview (Vickie to Ridgeway)
Contact Steve Gold 670-2878

Angela Dr. (Angela Circle to Oakbrook)
Contact David Ellison 672-7904

Just a little bit of volunteering won't hurt much. Some blocks only have 20 homes to deliver to, most are less than 25 homes. If you can help with any of these please contact any of the District Captains above. It's really not hard to volunteer one day out of the month and it proves to be good exercise by delivering the newsletter door to door for your particular block or blocks. You might even meet your neighbors.

You don't have to be a member to volunteer to deliver the newsletters.

A HUGE THANKS TO THOSE VOLUNTEERS FOR HELPING PICK UP THE LOAD

Also think about becoming an officer, there is scuttlebutt that a couple of our current officers won't run for next year.....
HELP!!!!!!!!!!

Happy Birthday

Linda H.

from all of us.

Early thoughts about winter, yep it's on the way. Secure your spigots outside the house to make sure the hoses are removed from the spigot. Provide plenty of water for your pets whether they are indoor or outdoor, and obviously food but watch the squirrels and grackles as they will feast off the free meal if your pets don't beat them too it.

Automobile, be sure and check you anti-freeze to make sure it will survive the winter, as a general rule -20° is a good temperature to protect to. I don't recall any temperatures getting that low around this area in years but even then I bet it would be a short one.

As I get older, I realize:

- #1 - I talk to myself, because there are times I need expert advice.
- #2 - I consider "On Trend" to be the clothes that still fit.
- #3 - I don't need anger management. I need people to stop ticking me off.
- #4 - My people skills are just fine. It's my tolerance for idiots that needs work.
- #5 - The biggest lie I tell myself is, "I don't need to write that down. I'll remember it."
- #6 - I have days when my life is just a tent away from a circus.
- #7 - These days, "on time" is when I get there.
- #8 - Even duct tape can't fix stupid - but it sure does muffle the sound.
- #9 - Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could put ourselves in the dryer for ten minutes, then come out wrinkle-free and three sizes smaller?
- #10 - Lately, I've noticed people my age are so much older than me.
- #11 - "Getting lucky" means walking into a room and remembering why I'm there.
- #12 - When I was a child, I thought nap time was punishment. Now it feels like a mini vacation.
- #13 - Some days I have no idea what I'm doing out of bed.
- #14 - I thought growing old would take longer.
- #15 - Aging sure has slowed me down, but it hasn't shut me up..
- #16 - I still haven't learned to act my age.

I hope you enjoy these and have A Great Day
