DECEMBER 2018

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends & Neighbors,

MERRY CHRISTMAS & HAPPY HOLIDAYS

As the Christmas—Holiday Season surrounds us with the changing weather and the sounds and visuals of the festivities, you can feel the excitement and anticipation in the air. While our lists of “thing to do” has more than tripled in length, a central focus is family and friends, and their wellbeing. Just a reminder to reach to others, especially the elderly, infirmed, or alone and attempt to lift their spirits. (It just might come back at you).

Over the years we have put out numerous articles and lists of the “dos & don'ts” during the holidays to keep you, your family, and your property safe and secure. While our burglaries have been at zero the last couple of months, “tis the season”. Most crimes are crimes of opportunity—lessen the opportunities lessen the crimes. Stay alert and vigilant, but most of all stay safe.

Now on to DANWA business. At our December 10th meeting, we will be receiving nominations for and voting on officers for the 2019 year. Article 6 section 3 of the DANWA BYLAWS states in part “Only members in good standing with the Association shall be eligible to hold any office in the Association.” We currently have over 330 members households in DANWA, this could be your opportunity to help lead us to continue in a positive direction.

May GOD bless you and yours always.

Ron McCall, DANWA President, 677-7923 danwapres@cox.net

Come on People!
We need YOUR HELP!!!

Need block captains for:

Angela Dr. (Angela Circle to Oakbrook)
Contact David Ellison 672-7904

Just a little bit of volunteering won't hurt much. Some blocks only have 20 homes to deliver to, most are less than 25 homes. If you can help with any of these please contact any of the District Captains above. It's really not hard to volunteer one day out of the month and it proves to be good exercise by delivering the newsletter door to door for your particular block or blocks. You might even meet your neighbors.

You don't have to be a member to volunteer to deliver the newsletters.

Grin and bare it:

The rain was pouring down. There standing in front of a big puddle outside the pub was an old Irishman, drenched, holding a stick, with a piece of string dangling in the water.

A passer-by stopped and asked, "What are you doing?" "Fishing," replied the old man.

Feeling sorry for the old man, the gent says, "Come in out of the rain and have a drink with me."

In the warmth of the pub, as they sip their whiskies, the gentleman, being a bit of a smart ass, cannot resist asking, "So how many have you caught today?"

"You're the eighth," says the old man.

Couple in their nineties are both having problems remembering things. During a checkup, the doctor tells them that they're physically okay, but they might want to start writing things down to help them remember ..

Later that night, while watching TV, the old man gets up from his chair. 'Want anything while I'm in the kitchen?' he asks.

'Will you get me a bowl of ice cream?'

'Sure..'

'Don't you think you should write it down so you can remember it?' she asks.

'No, I can remember it..'

'Well, I'd like some strawberries on top, too. Maybe you should write it down, so as not to forget it?'

He says, 'I can remember that. You want a bowl of ice cream with strawberries.'

'I'd also like whipped cream. I'm certain you'll forget that, write it down?' she asks.

Irritated, he says, 'I don't need to write it down, I can remember it! Ice cream with strawberries and whipped cream - I got it, for goodness sake!'

Then he toddles into the kitchen. After about 20 minutes, The old man returns from the kitchen and hands his wife a plate of bacon and eggs.. She stares at the plate for a moment.

'Where's my toast?'

This is one of the smartest scams I have heard about.

You arrive at your hotel and check in at the front desk. Typically, when checking in, you give the front desk your credit card (for any charges to your room) and they don't retain the card.

You go to your room and settle in. All is good.

The hotel receives a call and the caller asks for (as an example) room 620 - which happens to be your room.

The phone rings in your room. You answer and the person on the other end says the following:

*"This is the front desk. When checking in, we came across a problem with your charge card information. *

Please re-read me your credit card numbers and verify the last 3 digits numbers at the reverse side of your charge card."

Not thinking anything wrong, since the call seems to come from the front desk you oblige.

But actually, it is a scam by someone calling from outside the hotel.

They have asked for a random room number, then *ask you for your credit card and address information. *

They sound so professional, that you think you are talking to the front desk.

If you ever encounter this scenario on your travels, tell the caller that you will be down to the front desk to clear up any problems.

Then, *go to the front desk or call directly and ask if there was a problem. *

If there was none, inform the manager of the hotel that someone tried to scam you of your credit card information, acting like a front desk employee.

This was sent by someone who has been duped..... and is still cleaning up the mess.
