Del Aire Defender

DEL AIRE NEIGHBORHOOD
WATCH ASSOCIATION

OCTOBER 2019

From the DANWA President:

Greetings Friends & Neighbors,

Each month, thanks to James Standfill, the DANWA Area Crime Statistics are presented on the second page of the Del Aire Defender. These stats are gleaned from a multi-page report, put together by the Del City Police Department for all of Del City and presented to the neighborhood watches at a monthly meeting called the Round Table. Here are some of the stats you don't see in the Defender for the month of August 2019 for all of Del City: Calls for service—4,021, Citations—686, Arrests—113, Reports—317, DUI arrests—14 (5 for alcohol, 9 for drugs (marijuana)), Animal Control-155 calls for service, 18 citations, 1 report, 15 impounds. Upon further examination of this information it's remarkable. While the 4,021 calls for service includes such things as traffic accidents, barking dogs, or loud music at night, or "faults" calls for security alarms, that is still one call for every six residents of Del City (population 22,000). City Manager Mark Edwards stated that these numbers were reflective of those 20 years ago when he was with the DCPD. Does this mean that we are experiencing a crime wave, recent media stories would seem to suggest that we are, or are the increase in numbers merely better policing, or both?

I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the retirement of DCPD Major Bobby Britton. On September 6, Major Britton departed after 30 years and 6 months. Thank you for your service Major and best wishes.

Well its set, the Appreciation dinner will be at Midwest City Golden Coral, on October 24th at 6 pm. If you are one of DANWA's many volunteers, you are invited. Please contact Pat Satterwhite 405-412-7925 email psatterwhite@cox.net with your RSVP by October 14th.

Oh, and by the way, with regards to the above stats, just because you have a medical marijuana card does NOT mean you may drive while under the influence.

See you October 14th. May God bless & keep you and yours.

Ron McCall, DANWA President, 677-7923

HELP HELP HELP HELP HELPBe aware

We have noticed an increase in daytime burglaries, attempted burglaries, etc. Be vigilant and if you suspect something unusual or that just doesn't look right, call the police and let them take a look at it. Sometimes it might take longer for them to get on the scene than you would like but rest assured they will be on the way.

In our times of patrolling we have noticed where someone's grass has been mowed and they either left the clippings alongside the curb or just didn't make an attempt to pick the clippings up. This is a NO-NO based on city code. It has to do with EPA guidelines. Please tell your mower or remind yourself to either pick up the clippings or blow them back in your yard. What you might not realize is you are removing valuable fertilizer, that is if you do any fertilizing at all.

Behaviors that can make you vulnerable to FRAUD. According to research at the AARP Fraud Watch Network, here are some characteristic that make people vulnerable to fraud: 1. YOU RESPECT AUTHORITY. Many scammers will impersonate a police officer, and IRS or Social Security agent, or a court representative. Always know that government officer very rarely call people to conduct business, and they will never demand quick payments. 2. YOU LIKE TO PLEASE PEOPLE. Some scammers prey on people at work and rely on their good nature. >next page>>> >>>continued from "Be aware"> For example, an email from a boss or coworker asking you to buy expensive gift cards and take a photo of the front and back to get reimbursed. The email is actually a scammer pretending to be someone you know. 3. YOU GOT SCAMMED ONCE BEFORE. If you have already been scammed, there's a good chance the fraud calls will increase. Scammers put your information on a "victim list" that gets sold to other scammers. 4. YOU ARE UNDER STRESS. People who are dealing with an illness, loss of a loved one or another stressful event are more likely to get tricked into giving away personal information. Make sure to especially vigilant during time of crisis.

Just today I hear of credit card skimmers being applied to machines within a store so one might want to be especially careful when using them within an establishment.

Always be watchful when using the credit card.

KENNEWICK, Wash. (KEPR) - A man experienced instant karma over the weekend when his pickup was stolen while he was robbing the business across the street, police say. The incident unfolded at around 6 a.m. Sunday when Kennewick police responded to reports of vehicle theft. The vehicle's owner told officers someone had stolen his red 1992 Chevrolet pickup. The owner had left his keys behind on the seat, and a thief drove off with the truck. But after surveillance video was reviewed, police discovered that the reason the pickup owner had left his truck was because he was off stealing items from a business across the street.

The pickup owner was then booked in the Benton County jail on a warrant and a new burglary charge.

His pickup is still missing.

Man's pickup stolen while he was robbing a store, Kennewick police say

If you're not familiar with the work of Steven Wright, he's the famous Erudite (comic) scientist who once said: "I woke up one morning, and all of my stuff had been stolen and replaced by exact duplicates." He sees things differently than most of us. Here are some of his gems:

- 1 - Borrow money from pessimists -- they don't expect it back.
 - 2 - Half the people you know are below average.
 - 3 - A conscience is what hurts when all your other parts feel so good.
 - 4 - A clear conscience is usually the sign of a bad memory.
 - 5 - If you want the rainbow, you have got to put up with the rain.
 - 6 - All those who believe in psycho kinesis, raise my hand.
 - 7 - The early bird may get the worm, but the second mouse gets the cheese.
 - 8 - I almost had a psychic girlfriend, But she left me before we met.
 - 9 - OK, so what's the speed of dark?
 - 10 - How do you tell when you're out of invisible ink?
 - 11 - If everything seems to be going well, you have obviously overlooked something.
 - 12 - When everything is coming your way, you're in the wrong lane.
 - 13 - Ambition is a poor excuse for not having enough sense to be lazy.
 - 14 - Hard work pays off in the future; laziness pays off now.
 - 15 - I intend to live forever... So far, so good.
 - 16 - Eagles may soar, but weasels don't get sucked into jet engines.
 - 17 - What happens if you get scared half to death twice?
 - 18 - My mechanic told me, "I couldn't repair your brakes, so I made your horn louder."
 - 19 - Why do psychics have to ask you for your name.
 - 20 - If at first you don't succeed, destroy all evidence that you tried.
 - 21 - A conclusion is the place where you got tired of thinking.
 - 22 - Experience is something you don't get until just after you need it.
 - 23 - The hardness of the butter is proportional to the softness of the bread.
 - 24 - To steal ideas from one person is plagiarism; to steal from many is research.
 - 25 - The sooner you fall behind, the more time you'll have to catch up.
 - 26 - The colder the x-ray table, the more of your body is required to be on it.
 - 27 - Everyone has a photographic memory; some just don't have film.
 - 28 - If at first you don't succeed, skydiving is not for you.
- And the all-time favorite -
- 29 - If your car could travel at the speed of light, would your headlights work?

Just for chuckles

My luck is like a bald guy who just won a comb.

I'm bored, I think I'll go to the mall, find a great parking spot and sit in my car with the reverse lights on.

If you answer the phone with "Hello, you're on the air!" most telemarketers will quickly hang up.....

When one door closes and another door opens, you are probably in prison.

When I say "the other day", I could be referring to any time between yesterday and 15 years ago.

Interviewer: So, tell me about yourself.

Me: I'd rather not... I kinda want this job.

Cop, "Please step out of the car."

Me, "I'm too drunk, you get in."

I remember being able to get up without making sound effects..... Good times.

I had my patience tested. I'm negative.

If your sitting in public and a stranger takes the seat next to you, just stare straight ahead and say, "Did you bring the money?"

When you ask me what I am doing today, and I say "nothing" it does not mean I am free. It means I am doing nothing.

I finally got 8 hours sleep. It took me three days, but whatever.
